

IS YOUR COMPANY OSHA COMPLIANT?

QUALIFIED CRANE TRAINING AND CONSULTING NOW OFFERING REGIONAL SEMINARS

According to OSHA crane incident data – 70% of crane incidents can be prevented with training!

We are offering regional seminars to bring crane training to a location near you!
Seats are limited - reserve yours today!

Location: Milwaukee, Wisconsin

May 16, 2022 - $495

Course: ISP-300 Overhead Crane Frequent Inspection Certification

May 17-19, 2022 - $1795

Course: ISP-301 Overhead Crane Periodic Inspection Certification

May 20, 2022 - $595

Course: ISP-301R Overhead Crane Periodic Inspection Certification Refresher

Special note – We will honor any student's prior certification from other training providers.

CHECK OUT OUR WEBSITE FOR MORE INFORMATION

www.qualifiedcranetraining.com info@qualifiedcranetraining.com 1-800-704-8730

- ✓ OSHA 1910.179 says adjustments, repairs and inspections on cranes can only be performed by designated and qualified personnel
- ✓ ASME B30.2 says training and certification of all personal who inspect or maintain the electrical, mechanical, or structural components of a crane, is required
- ✓ CMAA says that crane technicians and inspectors shall receive training.

Planned frequent and periodic inspections performed by trained and qualified crane inspectors can improve safety, reduce costly downtime, and improve equipment reliability by as much 60 to 95%.

Call us for promotional or multi-student discounts

WE HELP YOU INVEST IN YOUR MOST IMPORTANT ASSET – YOUR PEOPLE